CELEBRATE THE HOLIDAYS WITH A PRIVATE PARTY AT THE ESTATE HOUSE

Creative Cuisine, Inviting Outdoor Spaces Overlooking Arizona Canal, Stetson Park and a Gorgeous Residential-Style Interior with Distinctive Private Dining Venues

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. – October 24, 2008 – Now is the time to schedule a holiday event at Estate House that will create lasting memories. This multi-level dinner house with the atmosphere of a private estate house, offers several unique spaces that can accommodate groups of 10 to 250.

The Conservatory, located on the first floor dining room, is ideal for intimate groups of up to 14 people. The casually elegant dining area overlooks Canal Park. Designed as a stylish sitting room, the warm wood dining table is surrounded with comfortable arm chairs. A fireplace warms the room and a daybed invites relaxation. Situated on the second floor, Upstairs at Estate House is where the sophistication of a glamorous, uptown city lounge meets the comfort of a well-appointed living room. This stylish space is perfect for groups of up to 150.

Also on the second floor, The Den, offers private dining for up to 32 people. This handsome room features a dramatically lit ceiling, plush leather chairs, high-back couches and its own private terrace. A television is designed to be hidden when not in use. On the third floor is The Penthouse that can accommodate up to 50 people. The Penthouse includes a Boardroom with a built-in audiovisual center and large plasma flat screen television. It also boasts a multi-purpose high top table with a pool table underneath and seating for 16-20, a sophisticated Living Room with custom residential furnishings and lighting fixtures, local artwork, and large fireplaces that adds to the casually elegant atmosphere, providing warmth, ambient light and focal points. A fully equipped chef's Kitchen and a wrap-around terrace provides extraordinary panoramic views with outdoor fireplaces and a Cigar Patio.

For holidays under the stars, Estate House's multi-level terraces invite guests to linger and mingle under the sparkling Scottsdale night sky. The outdoor terraces can accommodate groups of 20 to 75. One terrace is lined with cozy benches and dotted with bistro tables that are perfect for enjoying "Yuletide Toddy", or a casual dinner buffet. Another two outdoor dining venues can accommodate larger parties or even a full-course feast al fresco. One veranda overlooks vibrant Canal Park and features an outdoor fireplace which instantly creates a warm and welcoming holiday atmosphere. The other, situated on the waterfront side of the restaurant, is distinguished by a promenade walkway, charming antique French stone sink and lush foliage with glowing lanterns framing romantic views of the water.

Estate House will be open for the first time for Christmas Eve dinner with adjusted dining hours of 2-9 pm on December 24th. (Closed Thanksgiving and Christmas Day)
